Work at the Baptist Orphanage.
City Engineer W. W. Dunlap was engaged all day yesterday in doing work at the Baptist Orphanage at Salem.

Republican Mass-Meeting.
The Republicans have arranged to hold a mass meeting at the Old Opera House Wednesday night, at which time their last campaign shots will be fired by local speakers.

Mr. Robbins at Bethany Church.
Mr. Robbins, the new Presbyterian pastor at Vinton and West Roanoke, preached at Bethany Presbyterian Church Sunday night for the pastor, Rev. John Van Leer.

Strawberry Fete to be Held.
The young ladies of Calvary Baptist Church will hold a strawberry fete next Friday and Saturday in the vacant store room on Jefferson street. They will prepare and execute an elaborate musical programme.

For Selling Liquor Without a License.
Edward Tucker, colored, was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Rhodes yesterday on the charge of selling liquor without a license. He was sent on to the grand jury and was locked up in default of $200 bail.

Train Conductor Shot.
J. C. Glover, a conductor on the Norfolk and Western, was shot in the back one day last week, while on his train on the Kenova division, by an unknown man. Glover was taken to Kenova, where he now lies in a critical condition.

Election of Y. M. C. A. Directors.
A meeting of the members of the Y. M. C. A. was held at the building last evening and four directors were elected to serve for a period of three years, the terms of Messrs. Linbeck, Stone, Gooch and Groves having expired. The same gentlemen were re-elected.

Monday's Police Court Docket.
The docket in the police court yesterday morning was a light one for Monday. Wm. Garrison, white, was fined $2 for trespassing on Norfolk and Western property. Jim Crook, colored, was charged with disorderly conduct, and was assessed $5, as was also Josephine Thomas, white, for the same offense. Harrison Carey, colored, was fined $2 for sleeping in a vacant house, and Thomas Williams, colored, $2.50 for disorderly conduct.

Militia Will Go to Richmond.
The Roanoke Light Infantry at their meeting held last night voted to respond to Colonel Baker's request that as many companies as possible of the Second Regiment of Virginia Volunteers go to Richmond on the 30th instant to assist at the ceremonies of the unveiling of the Confederate soldiers' and sailors' monument. It is probable that a large company will turn out at that time. The Roanoke Machine Works Guards have not yet fully decided upon going, but it is more than probable that they also will go with a good sized company. The staff officers, Lieut. Col. W. S. Poole and Asst. Surg. Dr. R. Gordon Simmons, will accompany the militia from this city.

THE HEALTH OF THE CITY.
The necessity of making the sewer connection making itself apparent.

Dr. J. T. Strickland, of "Ingleside," chairman of the health committee of City Council, in a conversation with a reporter of THE TIMES yesterday, said: "While there has been different kinds of diseases in the city for the past few months I cannot say that I have reason for it. The health of the city as a rule is good. The most gratifying piece of news in connection with this, to me, is that a large number of houses are connecting with the sewers."
"Where the people fail to connect with the sewers there is some sickness, and there will be a great deal more. This is one of the most important rules of health of the city, and it is one that the public pay the least attention to. The time of year will come when this will cause a great deal of trouble in Roanoke, and it will, no doubt, send many inmates to the city alms house."
"You can say that I am glad that the people are paying some attention to the special ordinance and are connecting with the sewers as readily as they are."

UNION SERVICES CLOSED.

The Evangelical Meetings, Which Have Been in Progress for a Month, Ended.

The closing services of the union evangelistic series of meetings was held in the auditorium of St. Mark's Lutheran Church Sunday afternoon and were attended by a large number of people.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Campbell, of the First Presbyterian Church, had charge of the services, which began with singing "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow," followed with an earnest and fervent invocation of the divine blessing by Rev. W. F. Hamner, of Greene-Memorial Church. "Onward, Christian Soldiers," was then sung, and Rev. E. B. Pollard, of the First Baptist Church, read the 84th Psalm. Rev. H. C. Garrison offered up an earnest prayer, and hymn 62 was rendered by the choir and audience.

Dr. Campbell reviewed the evangelistic meetings and their results at length. These meetings were unique, in that they were participated in by the ministers and laity of the different denominations of the city, all working together in perfect harmony and with zeal to advance the kingdom of Christ. He himself had been greatly benefited in hearing his ministerial brethren preach, and the laity of the churches had been stimulated and helped.

Preaching, he said, was not confined to the ministers alone. Every church member could carry the gospel message to some one of the unsaved in the city. How many souls the evangelistic meetings had been instrumental in bringing to a saving knowledge of Jesus was not known. There were many, but the fruits of these meetings will be gathered by the churches for a long time to come. The spirit of union now ruled in the churches and the preachers knew, appreciated and loved each other now as never before. The Union meetings had been a great blessing.

Dr. Campbell was followed by Revs. Hamner, Pollard, Garrison, Mr. Greenwood, T. T. Fishburne, Capt. John H. Wright, J. M. Gambill, W. C. Nyeum, W. R. Terrell, R. A. Jones, T. S. Van Horn, Rev. C. S. Stanton, of Trinity Church, and C. J. A. Elm, each of whom testified briefly to the good results of the union services.

Dr. Campbell complimented and thanked the choir for prompt and faithful work. The ministers and laity had been greatly aided in their work by the excellent music and would remember the choir for their services and pray God's blessing upon them.

The meeting closed with singing, "God be With Us Till We Meet Again," and the benediction by Dr. Campbell.

ENDING UP THE CAMPAIGN.

Arrangements Made for a Meeting in the Fifth Ward To-night.

The members of the Democratic executive committee and several of the candidates to be elected next Thursday met at the office of K. Randolph Hicks, chairman of the committee, last night and made plans for closing up the campaign in an effective manner.

The various ward meetings throughout the city suggested for to-night have been given up, but a meeting will be held to-night at some place to be selected to-day at the extreme West End of the Fifth ward at which S. E. Jones, candidate for mayor, J. C. Coleman and W. O. Hardaway will be the speakers.

Arrangements are trying to be made to secure some prominent out-of-town speakers and hold a big mass-meeting at the Academy of Music to-morrow night. Hon. J. Hoge Tyler, of Radford, and Hon. John E. Massey, State superintendent of public instruction, have been corresponded with, and it is quite probable that either one or both may be present.

Demorest Medal Contest.

A CLASS for the third Demorest medal contest is now being organized. No contestants will be admitted after this week. Either sex, between the ages of 20 and 25, desiring to contest, will please report at once to Miss E. K. Reeves, superintendent of Demorest medal contest work. Address, 112 1/2 Campbell avenue s. w.

A Question of Pride.

Pride is the birthright of almost every Spaniard, and the fact that one of the race may take up the occupation of a beggar does not shut him out from the possession of it. An American traveler relates that in alighting at a hotel in Granada he saw a man at the door put out his hand toward him.

The traveler supposed that the man was the porter of the hotel and offered him his valise. The man stepped back, tossed his head and frowned scornfully.

"Caramba!" he exclaimed. "Do you take me for a porter? I would have you understand that I am no porter."

"Indeed? Then may I ask you, señor, what you are?"

"I am a beggar, sir, and asked you for alms!"—Youth's Companion.

Getting His Discharge.

—Life.

Suspense.

They had sat thus for many minutes, and the gloaming was getting pretty dense when she broke the silence.

"Can you," she asked, "oblige me with a match?"

In his heart love struggled with honesty and was conquered.

"Yes," he faltered.

"Thank you."

There was an instant of terrible anxiety, and then a flood of joy filled him.

"She loves and trusts me," his exulting soul exclaimed as the girl applied the light to the end of a cigarette which she drew from the escritoire and placed between her dewy lips. "I feared she wanted it for the gas."

After which he observed a few commonplace aloud by way of covering his confusion.—Detroit Tribune.

Jerrold's Wit.

On the first night of the representation of one of Jerrold's pieces a successful adapter from the French rallied him on his nervousness. "I," said the adapter, "never feel nervous on the first night of my pieces."

"Ah, my boy," Jerrold replied, "you are always certain of success. Your pieces have all been tried before." He was seriously disappointed with a certain book written by one of his friends. This friend heard that Jerrold had expressed his disappointment and questioned him, "I hear you said—was the worst book I ever wrote."

"No, I didn't," came the answer. "I said it was the worst book anybody ever wrote." Of a mistaken philanthropist Jerrold said: "I was 'so benevolent, so merciful a man he would have held an umbrella over a duck in a shower of rain.'"—Argonaut.

Had Met Before.

Mr. McSwat had risen unusually early, and as he opened his kitchen door to see how a sunrise looked he encountered the milkman.

"Hello!" he said. "Haven't I seen you somewhere before?"

"Yes, sir," replied the milkman, filling the crock on the step from his can. "I initiated you night before last into the Royal Order of the Nobles of the Ancient Mystery. I'm the majestic generalissimo, you know. Fine morning, isn't it?"—Chicago Tribune.

From Frying Pan to Fire.

Deacon—We must devise some means of paying these $500 of outstanding bills against the church. We are being pressed for the money.

Vestryman (in surprise)—Why, what are they for?

Deacon—For flowers, decorations, music, etc., furnished for the entertainment last month to celebrate the church being at last free from debt.—Puck.

Some Difference.

Mrs. Twickenham (to Mrs. Slimson)—I declare, there is always some expense. I was going to get me a swell gown this summer, and now my husband tells me he has got to spend $75 for a new dress suit.

Little Willie Slimson—Papa got one the other night for only $3.—Clothes and Furnish.

Deficient.

Mrs. Wayoff—And this picture is—
"That is Niobe. I suppose you are perfectly familiar with the story?"

Mrs. Wayoff—No, I can't say that I just recall it. There's a good many of the neighbors I'm not yet acquainted with.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Probably She Would.

Reggy—If you had been drinking a cocktail and kissed a girl afterward, do you think she would know it?

Tom—If I kissed a girl, I think she would know it whether I had been drinking cocktails or not.—Life.

Some Go to Him.

"Has that young man who comes to see you any go in him?" asked the father, addressing his daughter.

"Oh, yes, papa," she replied; "he goes at half past ten every night."—New York Press.

But Natural.

"Mamma," cried the little pig, "I want more to eat."

"Well," exclaimed the parent petulantly, "I presume you are bound to make a hog of yourself anyway."—Detroit Tribune.

Business Depression.

First Boy—How's business?
Second Boy—Poor. Only sold one stamp this week, and I didn't get anything for that but three marbles. Never saw times so hard.—Good News.

A Definition.

Weinberg—What do you call a work of art?
Givens—It's something you don't quite understand and that costs you a heap of money.—Puck.

Determined.

"So you are mad at your husband. Are you going home to your mother?"
"No, I shan't do anything to please him again as long as I live."—Detroit Tribune.

A Clean Sweep.

Tom—I hear that you swept everything before you at the Browns last night.

Jack—Yes; old man Brown wiped up the floor with me.—Yale Record.

A Feasible Idea.

Nodd—I wish I could cure my wife of dyspepsia.

Todd—Why don't you get a servant girl to do your cooking?—Truth.

PROCLAMATION.
BY THE GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA—A Proclamation.—Information having been received by the executive that on the 15th day of May, 1894, near Eagle Rock, in the county of Botetourt, in this State, the crime of rape was committed on the person of Miss Mary Flerson, by some unknown person who is thought to be one DAVID KELLEY, a white man, with fair skin, sandy hair and mustache, about five feet six inches high, weighs about 160 pounds, a little stooped, about 25 years old, gray or light blue eyes, and a flesh scar under his right eye; and that the said unknown person has escaped arrest and is now going at large, therefore I do hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED dollars to any person who shall arrest the said unknown person and deliver him into the jail of said county of Botetourt; said reward to be paid only after the trial and conviction of the said unknown person, and I do moreover require all officers of this commonwealth, civil and military, and request the people generally to use their best exertions to procure his arrest, that he may be brought to justice. Said offer of reward to continue for ninety days from this date
